Subject: Request to Attend Stibo Systems Connect 2026 in Austin, Texas

Hi [Manager's Name],

I would like to request your approval to attend Stibo Systems Connect 2026, taking place September 28-30, 2026 in Austin, Texas.

This annual conference brings together data management professionals from around the world and provides direct access to:

- The latest innovations and best practices in Master Data Management (MDM)
- Stibo Systems' product roadmap and upcoming platform capabilities
- Real-world customer case studies demonstrating how MDM drives operational efficiency, revenue growth, stronger customer and supplier relationships, and more informed decision-making

Attending Connect 2026 will give me actionable insights directly applicable to our work. In particular, it aligns with several of our current priorities:

- [Insert relevant project or strategic priority]
- [Insert relevant project or strategic priority]
- [Insert relevant project or strategic priority]

Beyond the formal sessions, the conference offers valuable opportunities to connect with peers, industry experts, and Stibo Systems product specialists. These are all conversations that can support both ongoing troubleshooting and longer-term innovation.

Registration includes two and a half days of educational programming, networking events, catered meals during the conference days, and post-event access to all session materials.

Below is an approximate cost estimate for the trip:
